2) The present appeal appears to have arisen from a license for procession granted by the Assistant Magistrate of Bowringpett. The question involved is not of a nature which may be termed Municipal but it relates to certain manual practices often village institutions connected with the actual Worship. The matter appears therefore to be one for being dealt with in Bor. III

	3/4/17 The Amildar's memo explains the history of the case and the suggestion made by him to solve the dispute has been approved by the District Magistrate. The District Magistrate explains that his order was passed to prevent breach of the peace and that Mahzars have been obtained for strict compliance with his order. The only point that the petitioners urge is that they may also be permitted to offer Cocoanuts when the Rod is taken in procession in the main street. There does not seem any objection in principle for this appeal does the ground of that is whether any modification of the order of the District Magistrate is necessary considering it as in other villages should stand.

(9) It may be pointed out to the District Magistrate that there can be no objection in principle to allow a person to offer cocoanuts &c., to the Deities when they come near his house and he may be asked whether nevertheless he considers it absolutely necessary that in the interests of the public peace, ~~the occurrence not approved of by him should be given effect to~~ this should be prohibited.

(10) It appears from the records that it was only in one year that the Deities were placed on the rock near the Chavadi and cocoanuts &c., offered there and it is a question whether this can be taken as establishing a mamool.

Sir,

With reference to your official memorandum No.J.2147--Pol. 96-16-4, dated 14th December 1916, calling for report on the petition of Muniappa and others of Karimangala in the Bowringpet Taluk, regarding the conduct of the procession of their ~~ri~~ deities in the said -- village, I have the honor to state as follows.

2. Karimangala is a small village containing about 40 houses. There are factions in the village on account of some dispute between the villagers and one Sonar Nanjachari in connection with the Ganesha procession. The question of the route by which the procession should be taken in the village on the Vijayadasami day and the manner of -- offering cocoanuts etc to the deities by the villagers has been fully gone into by Mr. F.S. Raghavachar, Amildar of Bowringpet, whose memo, dated 28th September 1914, on the subject is put up in the records. I have approved of the arrangement that the procession in question should be taken through the main street and that cocoanuts should be offered in accordance with mamool after the deities have been placed on the rock to the south of the chavadi (vide No.337 dated 13th September 1915). It is on this order that the petitioners have now memoralized to Government. It is needless to add that the villagers are at loggerheads and

Sir

With reference to your office letter no. Ref. H.C. 999 dated the 5th March 1917 submitting a report regarding the provision of the deities at Kanamaypulavu in the Bowniagalu Talaik I am directed to observe that there can be no objection in principle to allow a person to offer cocoanuts &c to the deities when they cries near his house. It appears from the records that it was only in one year that the deities were placed on the rock near the chavadi and cocoanuts &c offered there and this cannot be taken as establishing a mamul In that circumstance I am to request you to be so good as to intimate whether you consider it absolutely necessary in the interests of the public peace to prohibit the villagers from offering cocoanuts &c at the deities in procession passing the road.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.J.4641--Pol.96-16-6 dated the 15th June 1917, regarding the procession of the deities at Karamangala in the Bowringpet Taluk, I have the honor to state that the peculiar difficulty in the conduct of the procession of the ~~dkm~~ deities in this case is that the villagers insist that the deities should be taken to the houses of the devotees for the receipt of offerings in a certain order as per mamool. This order is most inconvenient to follow in practice as the houses of the said devotees are not in the same order in which the right of precedenceis claimed. Apart from this, frequent change of residence among the said devotees upsets the order once established and thus becomes a fruitful source of trouble resulting in some cases in -- public disturbances. To avoid this trouble it was proposed to take the deities to a fixed public place in the first instance before they are taken out on procession and there permit the offerings to be tendered in the order of precedence set up by mamool by those present. This arrangement would also obviate the inconvenience and delay caused to the public by the deities being unnecessarily held up before the houses of particular persons. The presentation of cocoanuts etc during the procession has to be stopped under the
